Dinesh Bawra

Dinesh Bawra, born in Uttar Pradesh and brought up in Mumbai began his journey of writing when he was inspired by his teacher, Vilas Vaidya in standard 10th. He participated in a poetry reading competition for the first time which became his first step in the path of poetry.

About his journey, the poet shared, "I failed in my 10th standard and because of this I lost my interest in Academics. I went on working but I could not find any interest in the same. After I got married, I pursued my passion once again. I went on working on television as a comic poet with The Great Indian Laughter Challenge. I was offered a lead role in 'Savdhaan India'. After that I was offered a role in 'Hundred Bucks I Will Lead' I wish to continue on the same journey further."
